4. Discussion and Updates

4.a. Discussion and updates on current projects:

- Lakeview Pier progress

- Timberhill pavilion and driveway decisions
- Granite park signs
- Plaque at Quarry Park

Lakeview Pier:

Extensive delays due to unexpected requirements (e.g., mussel habitat study).

No mussel habitat confirmed—project clear to proceed.

Timberhill:

The committee debated the best materials.

Avoid granite/washed granite due to erosion.

Park signs:

Installation was postponed due to weather and the need for large equipment.

4.b. Update on the purchase and planting of the red bud trees.

- Water access confirmed for planned tree locations.

4.c. Discuss the status of the Parks Committee budget.

- Final 2025–26 status not yet available; current working estimate: ~$4,000 remaining as of mid-year.
- Updated figures expected by end of month.

5. Action Items

5.a. Discuss, consider, and take appropriate action to plan for community event(s) sponsored by the Parks Committee.

1. Proposal: Volunteer open mic session in September/October at Bluebriar Park pavilion.

- Open to music, comedy, or other performances.

2. Outdoor Movie Night:

- Need to secure or rent a projector and screen.
- Sound equipment available; licensing for movies required (seek quotes and necessary permissions).

- Peter Hutnick to look into projector costs; rental vs. purchase of equipment discussed.

3. Cornhole Tournament & Pickleball Tournament:

- Consider for different weekends, or quarterly; open to all resident age groups.
- Potential for DIY city-branded corn hole boards ; keep in parks' equipment.
- Committee to secure sponsors for gift basket/prize donations.
- Decisions and calendar planning were deferred to the next meeting.

4. Additional Ideas:

- Card/bunco or other simple games night in the community center to foster engagement.

6. Future Agenda Items

- Monthly project update agenda recommended.
- Upcoming budget brainstorming session.
- A tentative special meeting is set for Thursday, June 11 to focus on parks budget planning for fiscal year 2026–27, wishlist, and prioritization.

7. Adjournment

With no further business or discussion, the meeting was adjourned.
